Excerpt: .sight, notwithstanding the manifold abuses, or imperfect and premature applications of men. Hence there is a Christian art, as well as a Christian science, a spiritual eloquence, a Christian virtue. Feeling and imagination are as much in need of redemption, and capable of sanctification, as reason and will. The proper and highest mission of art lies in the worship of God. We are to worship God in the beauty of holiness. All science culminates in theology and theosophy, all art becomes perfect in culture. Holy Scripture gives it this position, and brings it into the closest connection with religion, from the first chapter of Genesis to the last chapter of the Revelations, from the paradise of innocence to the new glorified earth. Art has always, and in all civilized nations, stood in intimate connection with worship. Among the heathens it ministered to idolatry. Hence the...
