Brand New Book  Print on Demand .From the Author s Foreword. ONE August day some ten or twelve years ago, I was riding over the splendid road which leads from Cripple Creek to Colorado Springs, in the stage which was at that time a three-seated mountain wagon. A woman sat with the driver, and some person of no moment to me then or now, occupied the place beside me; but the rear seat was filled by two stalwart miners-or rather, a miner and a mining engineer, who furnished the only conversation during the trip. It was all about the camp, new mines and old, shafts, upraises, faulting veins and the like, and mightily interesting to me it all was, for I, too, was prospecting, seeking a lead with eyes open to any piece of float which might indicate a vein higher up. I had in mind to write a story showing how a man of average moral sense might find his conscience quickened by the thought of approaching marriage with a good woman. I needed a situation wherein my hero (to...
