 Paperback. 396 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 1.0in. In the second story of the Autumn Series, Leslie Ann Scott has been elected mayor of the small town she adopted after the death of her husband, Will. Her son, James Zachary, is Eastern University's star halfback. Several of the current football players are sons of those who played with Will, Jim Hall, and Zack Morrison when they won a national championship in 1964. Zack is Eastern's football coach and Jim is a four-star general; the current commanding officer of the United States Central Command (USCENTCOM). A new day has dawned in Mayor Scott's town. In the name of progress the local governing body has opened the door for the darkest of Satan's henchmen. Topless bars, nude dancing, prostitution and legalized gambling has brought new money to an old town. Deep inside the Cats Tail, a degenerate world draws high stakes players with an unquenchable thirst for gambling and the dark vices that accompany it. But, it's all a cover for something more ominous. Facing a death threat because of her efforts to close the Cats Tail,...
