Not illustrated. 1920 Excerpt: . comparison with which the skill of architect, mason or carpenter is bungling work. The boy learns independence and to take care of himself under all circumstances. Men like Thompson Seton, John Burroughs and Henry Van Dyke, David and Moses, the Bible and nature have been great tutors. And he revels in the finest sentiment as he sees A stream coming from a spring which is at once a picture, a parable and an instrument of music. Folks gain a new understanding when they fish together. As an old clergyman said to a father, I know your son better than you do. I have been fishing with him. That intimate fellowship by stream side and camp fire is the thing which gives camp leaders-steering grip on growing boys. In China 5,500,000 people are starving. Three dollars will save a life until the harvest in July. The You Can Buy appeal to relieve this Men and Boys appalling world disaster For $3 Apiece has found response in America of over $4,000,000 including contributions of the Red Cross. Food is to be had in Manchuria, South China and the Philippines and quick relief sent as money is cabled. Can any young man be so indifferent to suffering humanity as to refuse to give The Editor s viewpoint at least $3, --the cost of saving one life, --or $15 to save an entire family of five? Brockman says, No Association has more important things in hand than Pittsburgh, which...
