The Duke School of Religion Bulletin, Vol. 3 (Classic Reprint)

By Duke School of Religion

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Duke School of Religion Bulletin, Vol. 3 The Palestine Report will rank among the great State papers of our time. Its proposals are a profound disappointment to many; but no one can question the honesty and courage with which the Royal Commission have gone about their task, or the ability with which they have presented their case. * This quotation from the New Statesman and Nation is repeated in Current History for September 1937; it bears another repetition here. Seldom indeed does British officialdom publish plain facts, containing an admission of failure, for all the world to read. I had originally intended to write about The Present Situation in Palestine ; but after realizing that it has been more than two years since I left the unfortunate Holy Land, I deemed it safer to comment on the Royal Commission s Report and current newspaper dispatches, instead of trying to guess what people in Palestine are saying and thinking at the moment. Too much guesswork has already been published about Palestine, both ancient and modern....
