A day snatched from the calendar of time, raised above all its fellows, and consecrated to thy service - fair goddess of Liberty! Once more a year has rolled round, and this great nation lives a progressively free and happy republic. Steadily as the sun she rises to her meridian, diffusing light and genial heat over all the nations of the globe: - a terror to those only, who live by deeds of darkness; but the admiration of all intelligent well wishers of the human race. Arrived at her zenith may she there remain till man himself shall cease to be, and time exist no more. Once more a year has rolled round, and we meet again, to remind each other, and our children, of those brave men, who, long having groaned under the rod of...
