ANAGRAMA EDITORIAL - BARCELONA, 1996. Bolsillo. Book Condition: Nuevo. Dust Jacket Condition: Nuevo. Charles Bukowski, la más impactante prosa de alcantarilla: la indecente energía de la furia, el malhablado lenguaje de los bares y una exuberante impertinencia constituyen su voz experta en interrumpir la algarabía de un mundo lleno de canciones de amor espantosas . Entre borrachos y suicidas, Bukowski ha conseguido que los miserables tengan su poeta y que la ironía sea capaz de derrotar a la peor de las tragedias. No podría, entonces, llevarnos hasta el infierno y traernos sanos y salvos? Sanos, sí; a salvo, no. Y es que en este viaje, pleno en humor cruel y furia ética, Bukowski despliega sus mejores artes de narrador despiadado para ofrecer una veintena de historias sarcásticas, explosivas y absolutamente inolvidables. Nadie sale ileso: ni el boxeador al que entre round y round le recomiendan tirarse, ni el escritor que va al hipódromo buscando una acción que lo arruina, ni el joven aburrido que lleva una prostituta a su casa, ni el actor que trata de escapar de la tiranía de la fama. Ni mucho menos, desde luego, el lector. Hijo de Satanás, un triste, cómico y potente libro como jamás escribió este importante autor , según la revista View, implica un paseo electrizante por el paisaje de la decadencia. A través de ese camino, Charles Bukowski ofrece la llave para abrir las secretas puertas del infierno. El callejón está abierto, y las emociones, aseguradas. 1 LIBRO.
